

The Reason for Our Hope: An Introduction to Apologetics

A Teaching Ministry of First Baptist Church

Lesson Six: The Harmony of the Gospels

The Purpose of the Gospels

Many have undertaken to compile a narrative about the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as the original eyewitnesses and servants of the word handed them down to us. It also seemed good to me, since I have carefully investigated everything from the very first, to write to you in an orderly sequence, most honorable Theophilus, so that you may know the certainty of the things about which you have been instructed (Luke 1:1-4)

Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name (John 20:30-31)

What is meant by a contradiction?

Why are there differences?
